Re: Request for Information Pursuant to Section 104(e) of the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act, 42 U.S.C. § 9604(e), PROTECO Site, Peñuelas, Puerto Rico

Dear Mr. Sawyers:

The United States Environmental Protection Agency ("EPA") is charged with responding to releases or threatened releases of hazardous substances, pollutants, and/or contaminants into the environment, and with enforcement responsibilities under the Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation, and Liability Act of 1980, as amended, 42 U.S.C. §§ 9601-9675 ("CERCLA"), also known as the "Superfund" law. For your information, a copy of the Superfund law may be found at www.epa.gov/superfund.

EPA has documented the release or threatened release of hazardous substances into the environment at the PROTECO Site ("the Site"), which is located at Road 385, Km 4.4, Bo. Tallaboa, Peñuelas, Puerto Rico. The Site is the location of a former hazardous waste treatment, storage, and disposal facility ("TSDF"). Operations at the TSDF began in 1975 under the name Servicios Carbareon, Inc.; in 1985, the name was changed to Protección Técnica Ecológica Corp. (i.e., "PROTECO"), which was succeeded by Resources Management, Inc. doing business as PROTECO. During its years of operation, the TSDF accepted a variety of wastes from multiple sources, including electroplating sludge, wastewater treatment plant sludge, slurries, petroleum waste, pesticide wastes, and pharmaceutical and manufacturing wastes. Historical records indicate that PROTECO accepted hazardous waste from the Star-Kist Caribe, Inc. facility in Mayaguez, Puerto Rico. (See Attachment C to this letter).

According to court records, during the years that Star-Kist Caribe, Inc. sent hazardous waste to PROTECO, Star-Kist Caribe, Inc. was a wholly-owned subsidiary of Star-Kist Foods, Inc., which was a wholly-owned subsidiary of the H.J. Heinz Company. On or around December 20, 2002, Del Monte Foods Company acquired certain businesses, including the StarKist Seafood Business, of H.J. Heinz Company. Del Monte Foods Company acquired these businesses through the merger of its wholly-owned subsidiary with and into SKF Foods Inc., previously a wholly-owned subsidiary of H.J. Heinz Company. Following this merger, SKF Foods Inc. changed its name to Del Monte Corporation. Pursuant to a June 29, 2008 Purchase Agreement, Del Monte Corporation sold certain assets and liabilities of its Starkist Seafood Business to Dongwon Industries Co., Ltd. All pre-existing environmental liabilities were specifically retained by the Del Monte Corporation, which, at that time, was a wholly-owned subsidiary of Del Monte Foods Company. On or around March 8, 2011, Del Monte Foods Company was acquired by an investor group. On or around October 11, 2013, the Del Monte brand was sold to Del Monte Pacific, Ltd. as Del Monte Foods, Inc.

In November 1980, PROTECO submitted a Part A Permit Application pursuant to the Resource Conservation and Recovery Act ("RCRA"), thus entering interim status. In 1987, EPA and PROTECO entered into a consent decree stipulating that PROTECO would perform injunctive relief with respect to RCRA violations. In November 1997, after it became apparent that PROTECO had continued to violate RCRA regulations and provisions of the original consent decree, EPA and PROTECO entered into an amended consent decree requiring the TSDF to meet RCRA closure and post-closure care requirements. PROTECO conducted closure of waste units from November 1997 to February 1999 and conducted some post-closure maintenance but stopped performing post-closure care altogether sometime between 2001 and 2009. Since then, EPA inspectors have confirmed that PROTECO is not maintaining the Site and is out of compliance with post-closure care provisions of the amended consent decree.

On May 17, 2018, the Site was proposed to be added to the "National Priorities List," EPA's list of releases and potential releases of hazardous substances, pollutants, and contaminants that appear to pose the greatest threat to public health, welfare, and the environment, established under Section 105(a) of CERCLA, 42 U.S.C. § 9605(a). In response to these releases and threatened releases, EPA has spent public funds and EPA anticipates spending additional public funds at the Site. The Site has not yet been finalized on the National Priorities List.
